

Financial Literacy for your Professional & Personal Well Being

Date | Wednesday January 31, 2017

Time | 9:00 to 10:30 am - Professional Finance

10:30 am to 12:00 pm - Personal Finance

Location | BC Children's Hospital Research Institute, Room 2108 (938 West 28th Ave, Vancouver)

This workshop is an opportunity for graduate students and postdoctoral fellows to have an introduction to business financial management and to learn personal financial literacy concepts.

Workshop & Learning Objectives

The workshop will provide a starting point for successful professional careers and personal financial wellbeing through an introduction to business and personal financial literacy concepts. Workshop teachings will be mixed with case work to reinforce and challenge learnings.

Through participating and completing this workshop, participants will:

- Gain a clearer understanding of foundational business financial concepts
- Have strong understanding of personal financial concepts
- Resources to access for future circumstances.

Key Topic Areas

- Understanding Key Stakeholders to your Business or Project
- Business and Project Management key financial indicators
- Business Budgeting Concepts
- Understanding Personal Financial Literacy Concepts
- Financial Planning events in your lifetime and life's different financial stakeholders
- Personal Financial Planning Strategies

Key topics will be discussed with case studies.

About the speaker

Darren Milne, CPA, CMA has 17 years in the finance and financial services. He has experiences across personal and commercial banking, project management, change management, financial accounting and financial planning. He is a Financial Security Advisor and Chartered Professional Accountant working with Freedom 55 Financial with a financial planning practice focused on career professionals and business owners.

Register

To register email: reseduc@bcchr.ca